

Henry Allen & Son
FURNISHING UNDERTAKERS
88 Main St.
"AN ASSISTANT WHEN REQUESTED"

Rutherford H. Snow
The Bean Hill
MONUMENTAL MAN

Aldi's Bowling Alley
Open from 9 a. m. until 12 p. m.
Bowling 10c per string.
Daily prize given also.
M. ALDI & CO. Props.

"Bank with the Little Bank on the River Bank"

DR. C. R. CHAMBERLAIN
Dental Surgeon
In charge of Dr. S. L. Geer's office during his absence.
McGrovy Building, Norwich, Conn.

Delivered to Any Part of Norwich the Ale that is acknowledged to be the best on the market—HAWLEY'S PEERLESS. A telephone order will receive prompt attention.
D. J. MCGORMICK, 20 Franklin St.

BUY THE BIG BEN ALARM CLOCK
—at—
WM. FRISWELL'S,
25 and 27 Franklin Street

PILES! PILES! PILES!
WILLIAMS' INDIAN PILE OINTMENT
Will cure Piles, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumor, always itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief.
For sale by all druggists, mail 50c and $1.00.
WILLIAMS' PILE OINTMENT
For sale at Lee & Osgood Co.

Florida
CUBA-AUGUSTA SOUTH
Atlantic Coast Line
The Standard Railroad of the South
SEA-LEVEL ROUTE
Through Trains Daily with All-Steel Electric Lighted Pullmans.
Bining Cars.
THE "NEW YORK AND FLORIDA SPECIAL" (Semi-Weekly) leaves New York 12:25 noon daily. For illustrated literature, apply to J. B. ALLEN, FRANK J. JOHNSON, N. Y. AGENTS, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

1647
Adam's Tavern
1861
offer to the public the finest standard brands of beer of Europe and America, Bohemian, Pilsener, Cuckoo, Bavarian, Scotch, Ale, Guinness, Dublin Stout, C. & O. Imported Ginger Ale, Hunker, John F. B. Ale, Frank Jones Ale, Nourishing Ale, Sterling Bitter Ale, Anker-Brewery, Schütz and Pabst.

A. A. ADAM, Norwich Town.
Telephone 47-12.

STORAGE
Largest capacity in the city.
A. N. CARPENTER
23 Commerce St.
All kinds of Mason Building Materials, Small Trap Rock for driveways and walks.

CONTRACTOR FOR EVERYTHING
Notwithstanding the Fire we are still doing business at the old stand and the quality of our work is just the same as ever—The Best. Nothing but skilled labor employed and best materials used in our work.
STETSON & YOUNG,
Carpenters and Builders,
50 West Main St.

Fies, Cake and Bread
that cannot be excelled.
Home order. Prompt service.
LOUIS H. BRUNELLE
19 Carter Ave. (East Side)

F. C. GEER, PIANO TUNER
Phone 111, Norwich, Conn.

The Bulletin
Norwich, Tuesday, Feb. 11, 1913.
The Bulletin should be delivered everywhere in the city before 8 a. m. Subscribers who fail to receive it by that time will confer a favor by reporting the omission.

THE WEATHER.
Today Weather Forecast.
For Southern New England: Increasing cloudiness and warmer Tuesday, probably followed by snow. Wednesday clearing, brisk southeast and south winds.
Predictions from the New York Herald Tribune: Tuesday it will be unsettled with snow or rain, fresh to brisk variable winds and slight temperature changes followed by clearing. Wednesday the outlook for Wednesday is clearing with decidedly lower temperature.
Observations in Norwich.
The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Monday:
Ther. Bar. 7 a. m. 30.36 12 a. m. 30.36 5 p. m. 30.36 8 p. m. 30.36
Predictions for Monday: Fair and colder.
Monday's weather: As predicted.

Sun, Moon and Tides.
Day. Sun. Sets. High. Water. Moon. Rises. Sets. High. Water.
10 2.50 6.14 11.42 9.45
11 3.15 6.49 12.02 10.02
12 3.48 7.16 12.52 11.02
13 4.25 7.46 1.02 12.00
14 5.05 8.19 2.50 1.00
15 5.44 8.50 4.50 2.10
16 6.22 9.18 6.40 3.10

GREENVILLE NEWS
Arranging for Gard Tournament Which Will Open Next Monday.
Monday night the entertainment committee of the Holy Name society of Greenville, have arranged for a card tournament which has been planned to take place between four of the neighboring towns, to wit: Greenville, Westford, and Westford, and to be held at the Holy Name hall, which is located on the corner of the village of Greenville. The members of all four societies are very enthusiastic over the proposed tournament, and suit of which is waited for anxiously by all interested.

Tried to Catch Car.
After making a call on friends on Thirtieth street Sunday night a well known gentleman met with what might have been a serious mishap. He hurried down Thirtieth street in the hope of catching a car for the city, but arrived at the white post just too late for the motorcar to see him. As the car went by he grabbed the rear end and tried to swing himself on board. The car was running too fast, however, and he was unable to do so. After being carried along some distance by the moving car, he was at last thrown to the ground and landed in a heap in the road.

Persons.
Leah Ward of Hartford was a week end visitor with his parents on Smith avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Haddad of Central avenue have returned after a short stay with friends in Worcester, Mass.

Samuel Marquis of Central avenue has recovered from a recent illness and was able to resume his place on the electric cars as conductor, Monday.

Miss Hazel Loomis of Prospect street and Wm. Moore of Danielson were the guests of Miss Loomis' cousin, Miss Rena Race of North Franklin on Saturday.

The choir of the Greenville Congregational church made a visit to several churches in the city on Monday evening was brightened by a number of beautiful selections by the choir.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the annual fair of the Father Mathew society was held at the Father Mathew rooms of 11 o'clock Sunday morning. John J. Connelly, president of the committee, presided over the meeting to order and presided. The committee, which consists of 13 members, is working hard to make the fair as successful as possible. They are greatly encouraged by the results of the recent dance given by the society.

YANTIC HAPPENINGS
Former Child Still at Pasteur Institute—Herd of Twenty-four Deer Near Murphy's Crossing.
Miss Marion Gibbs has been ill with bronchitis for several days.
There is no change in the condition of the child who is still at the Pasteur institute, New York. He is still very ill.
Twenty-four Deer Seen.
A herd of twenty-four deer was seen in the vicinity of Murphy's crossing Monday.
Personal Mention.
Miss Olive L. Scott of Deposit, N. Y. is spending two weeks in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Drury. Miss Freda Lund of Danville was a week end visitor.
Miss Nora Shea of Fitchville spent the week end here with her niece, Mrs. Carl Bentley.
Miss Cecelia Cohn was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis Schwartz of New London.
Mrs. Howard Ford was a recent visitor in New Haven.
Frank Eldridge has taken a position with the Vermont Central Vermont railroad.
The small boy has his sled out and his skates sharpened. Sliding is good and ice is 1 1/2 inches thick on the pond of Yantic farms.
Seigneur Stoddard of Mystic was a visitor here Thursday.
The Boy Scouts movement has reached Yantic. Meetings were held Thursday afternoons in the chapel rooms.
Dwight Avery has moved his sawmill from Bozrah to Voluntown.
Miss Maud Lamorne has been ill for the past week.
Mrs. Mary Richards has recovered from an attack of grip.
Miss Leland of Plainfield was a guest of her aunt, Miss Maud Lamorne over Sunday.

GAGER
Funeral Director and Embalmer
10 Franklin St., Bulletin Building
Telephone 112-3
Prompt service day or night.
Lady Assistant.
Residence 118 Broadway
Opp. Theatre. Telephone 112-3

Went With Tobin Arms Co.
Thomas Hogan, who went from here with the Tobin Arms company when it removed to Woodstock, Ontario, is in town for a short time. He is here by the serious illness of his mother. He is still employed by the Tobin Arms company and is well pleased with Canada.

Marriage License was granted at New Britain Saturday evening to Nick Alousick and Miss Lina Silva, both of Norwich.

Fourth Degree Meets.
K. of C. Men of State Hold Conference on Work.
Delegates from the Fourth Degree assembly, Knights of Columbus, from all parts of the state met Sunday afternoon at the Hotel Taft in New Haven to perfect arrangements for the more extensive formation of assemblies in the state. The meeting was most enthusiastic, and it was decided to have an exemplification of the degree in Bridgeport in November.

Wedding Downy of $300.
We are told that when a troglodyte man decides that he wants to get married to a troglodyte girl he has, first of all, to hand over to her parents four goats and two kids, four sheep and four lambs, a large quantity of olive oil, barley and wheat. In some villages he also must present his prospective father-in-law with a brand new fox and a pair of yellow leather slippers for use in his subterranean domicile.

Dwelling On Top of Dwellings.
From Matmata the American traveler to the city of Matmata, in the State of Tunisia, makes that he is in a peculiar position. He is in a peculiar position. He is in a peculiar position.

Went With Tobin Arms Co.
Thomas Hogan, who went from here with the Tobin Arms company when it removed to Woodstock, Ontario, is in town for a short time. He is here by the serious illness of his mother. He is still employed by the Tobin Arms company and is well pleased with Canada.

Marriage License was granted at New Britain Saturday evening to Nick Alousick and Miss Lina Silva, both of Norwich.

Marriage License was granted at New Britain Saturday evening to Nick Alousick and Miss Lina Silva, both of Norwich.

Norwich Man Has Distinction Possessed by no Other American—Only One to Live Among North African Cavesmen—His Investigations Featured in New York Newspaper Story.
In connection with the sailing of an Italian war balloon over the villages of the troglodytes, the curious cave dwellers of northern Africa, which is described in one of the Sunday New York papers, the contribution of science upon this subject made by one distinguished son of Norwich, Frank Edward Johnson, given terse prominence. Of the work of Mr. Johnson in his original investigation among the troglodytes it is said:
"Frank Edward Johnson is the man who can lay claim to being the only American who has lived among the cavesmen of Northern Africa. While he was in Tripoli some years ago he became acquainted with the Khed of Matmata, an intelligent native, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by paying his old friend a visit. 'I am going to Matmata,' said Mr. Johnson, 'and I will bring you back with me the sea to Tunis, transferred to a small coasting schooner. In the land I found the French masters of the land, whom the French masters of the land had appointed ruler over an inland tribe. This native later became Kaid of Matmata and, happening to read in some American magazine an article by Mr. Johnson on troglodytes, he wrote to the author at his home in Norwich, Conn., that he would like to prove his knowledge of the subject by